

MARSHALL E. SAUNDERS MEMORIAL PARK

Pleasant Cove Road, Boothbay

The Marshall E. Saunders Memorial Park is a 22.5-acre parcel on the Damariscotta River located where the Kelley Brook flows into Pleasant Cove. “Yellow” and “blue” trails cross a foot bridge to a scenic beaver pond near the southwest corner of the preserve. A 0.73-mile loop trail goes past Kelley Brook, once the site of a sawmill and brickyard.

In 1993, Margaret E. Saunders donated the Park in memory of her late husband. According to Mrs. Saunders, “Marshall loved the land”. The family spent many happy times at what they named “His Place” in Boothbay. It is the family’s hope “that people will enjoy and park and take care of what God has provided.” The land will be kept in its natural and wild state as a sanctuary for wild animals and birds and is available to the public for hikes and nature study.

Directions:

At the traffic light in Boothbay Harbor take Route 96 and proceed 0.9 miles. Turn left on Back Narrows Road and travel 3 miles to the stop sign at the intersection with Pleasant Cove Road. There is a small parking area directly across from the stop sign.

The Boothbay region is known for its spectacular natural beauty, rocky shores, coastal islands and river corridors. Since 1980, the Boothbay Region Land Trust (BRLT) has preserved and maintained the beauty of the Boothbay Region for the benefit and enjoyment of the residents and visitors in the Boothbay region.

The BRLT is a non-profit 501(c)(3) membership organization that engages in and promotes the selective preservation of natural resources in the Boothbay region. Land is acquired through conservation easements, bequests, donations, bargain sales and purchases. Most of the properties are open to the public, although some are restricted in use to protect wildlife habitat and nesting areas. The BRLT is also active in promoting education about our natural resources.

BRLT properties are open to the public for quiet, low impact activities. Overnight camping, fires and motorized vehicles are not allowed. Please keep dogs under control and take litter home, pick no flowers and take no specimens. For parties greater than 10, please obtain permission.
